settlers who entering into the premises of JARAWAS looted their stores of food and other articles like Amber the market value of which is Rupees one lakh they are on Andaman Trunk Road to be welcomed by the civilized society. Any body can see them near about Jerkatang to Middle State Jetty. Your petitioner also while coming from Mayabunder to Port Blair through Trunk Road on 2nd May' 1999 saw them begging for food and water, some of them were suffering from cold and cough and showing their throat and wanted to say something. It looks like that they have sever pain in throat and wanted help. Your petitioner being a sensitive Indian citizen, more over a human being, felt ashamed on herself as though having will to do every thing for them, could not do any thing as the respondent Administration has already cautioned the general public as regard exposure of aboriginals and not to give them eatables for their good. As in many occasions for collecting food they met with accident but since then your petitioner is under untold mental agony perusing the miseries they are suffering from. I am really surprised why the
