ADIVASI

It is published twice a year in June and December by the Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes Research & Training Institute, C. R. P. F. Square, Unit-VIII, Bhubaneswar-751003. It includes articles and research findings in various Social Sciences, Development Strategies and other related matters emphasising the problems of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes communities. It also publishes Book Review as and when referred to.

FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Papers in various disciplines, like Anthropology, Sociology, Economics, Demography, Human Geography, Museology and Museum methods and Planning with special reference to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are invited. The papers should be type-written in double space on one side of paper. The contributors should submit 2 copies of each paper. They may send their brief bio-data. Each paper should contain one paragraph abstract/summary to be printed at the beginning of the paper. No remuneration is paid to the contributors. Only 25 off-prints of the paper published are supplied. Two copies of the books may be sent for the purpose of review. The bibliography/references cited should invariably follow the pattern as in current Anthropology, as follows :—

BASCOM, W. R. 1951 Yoruba food, Africa 21.

BOVILL, E. W. 1933. Caravans of the Old Sahara,
London : Oxford University Press.

DOGGETT, H. 1965. "The development of the cultivated sorghums",

EDITORIAL

The present volume of the Adivasi journal incorporates the Index to all volumes of the journal published from 1955 to 1995. The Index volume contains 4 sections, such as The Title, Author, Tribes of Orissa and the subject classification. A legend showing how to use the Indexes has been appended.

The Publication of a journal by the Institute is a perpetual process. The Index volume shows its existence for a period of 4 decades. It has been possible through the consistent efforts of Shri M. K. Samantaray, Librarian of our Institute to bring out this volume and our thanks are due to him.

Hope, this volume will be useful to the academicians and researchers in various ways.
