After completion of the tender period the same vehicle is being plying for the same purpose at the old accepted rate. Sir, it was Rs. 39.72/Litre of the cost of diesel during the June, 2012 which cost of Rs. 52.62/Litre at present date. Having a good faith and relation with your good establishment, I am continuing the laid work. An amount of Rs. 10.00 (rupees ten only) may please be enhanced per hour (i.e. Rs. 87.00/hour instead of Rs. 77.00/hour) to minimise the loss whatever presently beared by me.

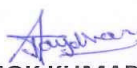

I hope your goodself will take an immediate step in this matter and enhanced rate be imposed from 1st January, 2014 to further period (till the finalization of new tender process).

This is for your kind consideration and necessary action please.

Thanking you Sir,
Yours faithfully
