

28

1. Whether the Project/Scheme serves Public interest or not?
The proposed painting of 20 Nos. Onge Hut at Dugong Creek, Little Andaman. The project serves public interest.
2. Justification for investment in Capital project :
The quantum of expenditure estimated to be incurred for the assets proposed to the created will commensurate with the investment.
3. Economical execution of the Project :
The project has been designed and planned in such a manner that its execution will be in the most economical manner and no wasteful/superfluous expenditure is incurred.
4. Inclusion of essential components in the work :
Estimate is framed in such a manner that all the essential items are included, which are technically important to execute and complete the work.
5. Assessment / appraisal of scope/nature of project / scheme :
After a thorough discussion on feasibility, economic & utility the project has been framed.
6. Preparation of estimate :
The detailed estimate and abstract of cost has been prepared in accordance with norms/parameters as per provision of CPWD Manual and guidelines/instruction issued by the Government from time to time.
7. While preparing estimates, the executing/construction agency will work out per unit cost and submit a statement indicating therein comparative per unit cost of projects of similar nature under execution or executed in the recent past :
Not applicable in this case.
8. Technical and administrative aspects :
The responsibility of technical and administrative aspects related to the project will be on executing agency.
9. Consultancy charges :
In this project no consultant is required. Hence consultancy charges is not included in the estimate.
10. Requisite statutory and other clearances :
No statutory clearances is required in this project.
11. Probable impediments in the execution of the Project :
There is no impediment in execution of the project.
12. Availability of encumbrance free land :
The project is for the painting of Onge Hut. It does not comes under any private of forest land. Hence the land available for the project is free from encumbrance(s).
13. No duplication of work by any agency :
The estimate is prepared in such a manner that no component/unit/stretch of work is duplicated.
14. Before undertaking any project under PPP model prior approval of Planning Commission, Ministry of Finance and Ministry, concerned should be obtained through Ministry of Home Affairs :
The prior approval of Planning Commission, Ministry of Finance and Ministry concerned through Ministry of Home Affairs is not required.

Executive Engineer,
Minor Irrigation Division,
PWD, Hut Bay.