On 01.12.98 'information received from the SHO, Dundas Point and through Police Control that 26 Jarawas including women children came to tour in the morning. They also informed that the villagers were in agitating mood and planning to take the Jarawas to Pat-Raj Niwas as a mark of protest. I rushed to Tour with SHO, Dundas Point. The Jarawas were in the Police camp. I asked the police men to send back them immediately.
