

(xi) Teach the Jarawas particularly children a bit of Hindi for functional communication and also introduce simple sports among them.

(xii) Gradual introduction of the handicrafts among the Jarawas by utilising the locally available raw materials like bamboo and cane.

(xiii) Try and persuade the Jarawas not to plunder / take away the items from the villagers. Give them the gifts items like banana and coconut and drop them back into their territory.

(xiv) Establish a R & D Cell in the Administration to render the scientific advice to the Administration. It may consist of (i) Director of Anthropological Survey of India. (ii) Director of Central Institute of Indian Languages. (iii) Principal Chief Conservator of Forest, A & N Islands (iv) Director of Health Services, A & N Administration. (v) Director of Regional Medical Research Centre, (ICMR) Dolly Gunj, Port Blair. (vi) Director of Tribal Welfare, A & N Administration and others to be incorporated on the need basis.

(xv) A Task Force / Core Group consisting of the following to be set-up to take appropriate decision to tackle the developing Jarawa situation from time to time :- (i) Inspector General of Police, A & N Islands (ii) Principal Chief Conservator of Forest, A & N Islands (iii) Secretary (TW) (iv) Deputy Commissioner, Andamans District. (v) Director of Health Services (vi) Head of the Office of Anthropological Survey of India, Port Blair (vii) Director (TW) (viii) Executive Secretary, AAJVS. This Group will function in conformity with the broad policy decisions arrived at by the Administration.

(xv) Establish Field Office of AAJVS at selected places like Potatang, Kadamtala etc. with required men and machines.

(xvi) The approach of the Integration of the Jarawas into the main-stream through the gradual process of acculturation is a