

10. Tribal Welfare Officer Kadamtala has arranged black slates and chalk, half pants and vests for children and biscuits. also.

11. Shri. G. Theva Neethi Dhas, Secretary (TW), ^{Small} Puniya Srivastava, ^{Common &} Secretary (PWD), Prof. Pandya, Mrs Nabanita Ganguly, Director (TW), S.A.Awaradi, Director (ANTRI), Shri. Anup Mondal, Tribal Welfare Officer (Kadamtala) and other field staff of AAJVS were present on 22.10.2014 at Pota-tang Hot Spot for this inaugural event of Schooling

12 Shri. Debrata Mondal, Janjati Sewak read out slowly small passages from the book "Ang Katha" for the Jarawa children for about 15 minutes. Later, children drew sketches of fish, turtle etc on the slates.

13 Thereafter, as an activity Jarawa children made tops using small raw fruits and pointed sticks on the spot and then swirled them on to the ground by using their palms. The children enjoyed this play activity. At the end children were served with a packet of biscuits each. Few photographs of the event of opening of the schooling are placed in the file.

14 Prof. Pandya has made certain suggestions in the note in connection with the schooling among the Jarawas which are being put up in the relevant file of the AAJVS separately.
