The Officials of Andaman Adim Janjati Vikas Samiti and Police department had apprehended seven poachers who entered into Jarawa reserve area and were involved in anti-social and illegal activities with the Jarawa tribes. As you know that the matter is under investigation and Police Station Ograbraj and Kadamtala.

The AAJVS employees who caught the poachers are under series of threats from various ends. An ~~FIR~~ in this regard has been lodged at Police Station Kadamtala, (copy enclosed). Due to threatening to the employees both the employees viz. Shri. G. Bhaskar Rao, and Shri. Debrata Mondal are unable to discharge their duties at Tirur. The employees fear that, if the apprehended poachers are released after completion of their bail, they may create problem. for AAJVS staff at Tirur

You are therefore requested direct Police Personnel to accompany the AAJVS staff while they are performing duty in the Jarawa reserve areas and revenue villages when the Jarawas visit the settlement areas.
