Amended press note to be published in the Daily Telegrams is placed opposite against the new item published in a private local daily placed at page 180/c.

In Kadamtala area an incident took place on 3rd October 2013 and we gave a press note for the information of the general public, placed at page 178-179/C so as to give correct information to the public through the Daily telegrams. In the same way we may give the factual information to the public through the Daily Telegrams.

It is for submission of higher authorities that information is published in the news papers for making sensation and to increase their circulation. It is suggested that we may least react against such type of stories.
