To,

The Director (Tribal Welfare),
A&N Administration,
Port Blair

Sub: - Conducting of Joint Sea patrolling in jarawa reserve area-reg.

Sir,

It is to inform that incharge Police Out Post Tirur has informed that last joint sea patrolling in jarawa reserve area was conducted 22/12/2017 by the team comprising by police, AAJVS and Forest. Now the AAJVS field office at Tirur has decided to conduct the patrolling on 04/01/2018 after a gap of 10-11 days.

It was also decided, in the meeting of District Level Operation Committee held by the undersigned on 21/12/2017 to carry joint patrolling twice in a week keeping in view the recent incident of trespassing of local fishermen into the jarawa reserve area and many in the past.

It is, therefore, requested that tribal welfare officer of Tirur area may be directed to carryout joint patrolling in the jarawa reserve area twice in a week for the protection of the Jarawa tribe. Additional patrolling may also be carried out jointly upon the receipt of any credible intelligence relating to trespass in the Jarawa tribal reserve.
