Abay Kumar Srivastava, owner collected the following items from the Tribal Welfare Officer AAJVS:- <ul data-bbox="518 416 927 551" style="list-style-type: none">a) One leather bag brown colourb) One money purse black colourc) One nose ring yellow colourd) Cash RS.1568/- It is to add that as soon as the incident occurred, the Tribal Welfare Officer should have reported the matter to Police at Jirkatang or Middle Strait. AAJVS office is regularly issuing directives to the Tribal Welfare Officer to be more sensitive and create awareness among the Jarawas not to involve in such incidents. For protection of the Jarawas and proper operation of the convoy, the Andaman & Nicobar Administration has provided four vehicles to the Police Department. The Executive Secretary AAJVS regularly attends meeting of the District level surveillance chaired by the Superintendent of Police in which these issues are reviewed. The ANTRI frequently conducts training programs for awareness of the AAJVS staff. The shift in the habits of Jarawas from stealing of agriculture products to cash and ornaments from tourists is a serious issues to be discussed in detail. The stretch on the ATR between Jirkatang and Middle Strait is 50 Km and it is practically not possible for AAJVS to post one staff on every Kilometers. The best possible way would always be strict maintenance of convoy system, without any gap, correct speed, educating the drivers of tourist vehicles and also to create awareness among the Jarawas not to indulge in such activities. Administrative Officer AAJVSN.
