

From pre-page:

244
As per clause 3 (d), the object of the Society is to procure and supply the daily necessity of the members. As per Clause 4 (a) any person above 18 years of age, who is a Onge with sound mind can become members of the Society. Considering the provisions of the above clause, a branch of the Society can be opened at South Bay and rations articles provided to the members their. The copy of the bye-law of OMPCS ltd. is placed at page 195 /C, for perusal please.

245
In the light of the above note, it is proposed that

- a) The Tehsildar, Little Andaman may be made the Officer-in-charge, to the employees of AAJVS of Onge Settlement Dugong Creek and South Bay; and
- b) A branch of OMPCS ltd. may be opened at South Bay, making the Onges of South Bay members and providing them their daily necessity through the Society.

246
Submitted for approval please.

247
al
13/7/13
Executive Secretary
AAJVS