

- (iii) Professor Indira Chakravorthy will send suitable experts to Port Blair as soon as she returned to Kolkata who will train and assist in the analysis and also to test check the data on nutritional survey conducted during the first phase in December 2001 - January 2002.
- (iv) Health and Nutritional survey of the Jarawas of Tirur area which was not carried out during the first phase shall be conducted during the December 2002 so that information on post monsoon season is not missed out in the report to be submitted to the Hon'ble High Court of Kolkata and Govt. of India.
- (v) The assistance of Indian Coast Guard / Indian Navy may be sought to conduct aerial survey of the Jarawa areas by Resource base team led by Dr. T. K. Pal of Zoological Survey of India. The A & N Administration will take up the matter with the Fortress Commander/Commander, Coast Guard.
- (vi) The required assistance shall be provided by the A & N Administration to ZSI to complete the resource base survey in the Jarawa forest. The ZSI shall use its equipments as far as possible. However the procurement of some equipments (not very costly ones) could be done by A & N Administration. Dr. Pal of ZSI will render assistance in this regard.
- (vii) The issues and sub-issues explained in paras 20 to 28 approved by the Expert Committee and all concerned Departments/ Organisations will submit the report specifically covering the issues and sub issues mentioned in those paras.
- (viii) The concerned Departments/organizations shall submit the report mentioned above to Head of the Office of Anthropological Survey of India, Port Blair and Director (TW), A & N Administration before 28.2.2002. The report will be e-mailed in the following address:-
pblansian7@sancharnet.in
directortw@yahoo.co.in
- One hard copy of the report and a floppy shall also be sent to the above authorities before 28.2.2002.
- (ix) The concerned officers of the AnSI shall integrate all the reports sent by various other Departments/organizations and their own and finalize the draft before 15.3.2002.