

reference to this effect will be made immediately by Administration.

- (i) The members of the Expert Committee are competent enough to finalize the questionnaires. Accordingly the questionnaires on Health, Nutrition, Culture and Behaviour (Anthropology) are finalized herewith. The concerned members shall send the said questionnaires along with the Manual for the use quickly to the Administration.
- (ii) The questionnaires on the resources available for the Jarawas will be finalized by the members of the Expert Committee as soon as draft questionnaires are submitted by Zoological Survey of India and Botanical Survey of India and Principal Chief Conservator of Forests, Port Blair.
- (iii) The Composite Groups shall start survey in the field by 10th December, 2001 and shall cover all the seasons of the year. The pre-training, ~~pre-testing~~ and finalization of schedule will be completed before the survey team moves to the field on 10th Dec 2001.
- (iv) Director of Anthropological Survey of India will write to the Medical anthropologists to obtain the information / report on the health and impact of administering modern medicines among hunting and gathering tribes elsewhere in the world.
- (v) Administration will take up with the Government of India for protection of genetic material (genome) on Jarawas and other matters on research, documentation etc.
- (vi) An affidavit be filed before the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta and pray for one year time period for submission of the report by the Expert Committee and this one year period will commence from the date of the first meeting of the Expert Committee i.e. 10.09.2001.
- (vii) To meet the expenses relating to the study by the Expert Committee / Composite Group, funds available with the AAJVS shall be utilized in the first instance. Government of India will be requested to release additional funds under Special Central Assistance to meet the requirements by the Expert Committee as per the directions of the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta. Such additional funds under Special Central Assistance will then be reimbursed to Andaman Adim Janjati Vikas Samiti.
