

Note SheetSubject*F.No.16-11/AAJVS/2010-11

Para No.
	- 120 -
481	Refer page 276/C
482	PUC is a letter received from Asha Gupta, Director, Aayan (NGO), Port Blair requesting for permission of Kumari Gulab Devi, Great Andamanese to proceed to mainland in participating in the cultural programme at New Delhi.
483	Aayan is a registered NGO for conducting cultural programme, Drama, Street Drama etc in Aakashwani and Doordarshan in time to time.
484	She stated that our NGO has been organized a cultural programme in the India International Trade Fair - 2011 (IITF) at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi in coordination with Directorate of Tourism and Directorate of Sports Arts and Culture, Port Blair on 25.11.2011. 12 Children are participating in the programme including one Great Andamanese Children namely. Kumari Gulab Devi, D/o. Loka studying in Nirmala Senior Secondary School, Port Blair.
485	In this connection, it is to mention here that AAJVS is a trustee of Primitive tribes, all Plans and Policies formulated by Administration are implemented by AAJVS.
486	The above NGO should have approached the AAJVS either directly or through Directorate of Sports Arts and Culture before including the children in the programme.
487	It is, therefore, proposed that we may request to Directorate of Sports Arts & Culture for their commands in this matter.
488	Submitted please.  17/11/11 