No plans to retire: Viswanathan Anand

Chennai, June 4
He has been the undisputed world champion for the past five years but Indian chess veteran Viswanathan Anand has no plans of calling it quits just yet as he says his morale is on a high after beating a complicated Boris Gelfand to notch up his fifth world title.
"There are definitely no thoughts of retirement. In fact, quite the opposite. (Winning a fifth world title) has been a huge boost to my morale. As long as I enjoy, I don't see any reason to retire," Anand told reporters during a felicitation function organised by his long-time sponsors NIIT in Chennai on Sunday.

RBI hints at easing interest rates

New Delhi, June 4 Ahead of its mid-quarterly policy review, the Reserve Bank on Monday hinted at cut in interest rates, saying moderation in inflation due to lower economic growth and cooling global oil prices provide room for easing monetary policy. "the growth is somewhat lower than expectation and that may have positive, moderating impact on core inflation," RBI Deputy Governor, Shri Subir Gokarn said.

"... oil prices have come off somewhat more than expected. Those are the two factors that suggest more room (for easing monetary policy)," he said.
