

121

63. That with reference to statements made in para 83 the same are denied and disputed. I say that there has not been any contravention of the provisions of Article 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

64. That with reference to statements made in para 84 the same are denied and disputed.

65. That with reference to statements made in para 85 the same are denied and disputed.

66. That with reference to statements made in para 86 the same are denied and disputed.

67. That with reference to statements made in para 87 the same are denied. I say that the writ petitioners are not entitled for the relief as sought for by them.

68. That the writ petitioners' present writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is without any merits and justification and hence the same is liable to be dismissed. The writ petitioners are therefore, not entitled to get any relief(s) as claimed under the prior paragraphs 87(a) to (z) and (aa) to (rr).