

themselves in a crunch situation in so far as the availability of fish is concerned.

- 4) The Island is far and cut-off from the main island of South Andaman thereby increasing the scope of poaching and illegal entry into the island, which is a matter of concern.
- 5) Incidences of Forest fire has been noticed in the island on occasions causes of which can be natural or manmade.