

community therefore seeks certain change from the policy of observation from a distance as and when the situation favours and as deemed fit by the Administration.