Dear Mr. Awaradi,

Please refer to the discussion we had in Port Blair with regards to the training and survey programme for the Jarawas.

The schedule as planned was as follows :

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 3.12.2001 | - Arrival of resource persons from AIIPH&PH |
| 3.12.01 & 4.12.01 | - Training related to the survey at Port Blair |
| 5.12.01 - 7.12.01 | - Travel to field and pre-testing of survey methodology at the field |
| 8.12.01 & 9.12.01 | - Discussion on the outcome of the pre-testing and finalisation of the survey methodology and travel to field for survey |
| 10.12.2001 | - Launching of first survey monitored by the resource persons from AIIPH&PH |
| 11.12.01-14.12.01 | - First survey, monitored by the resource persons from AIIPH&PH |
| 15.12.2001 | - Departure of the resource persons from AIIPH&PH |

Under such circumstances the two trainers from the AIIPH&PH need to arrive at Port Blair by the early morning flight on 3rd December 2001, the day training begins. I will be deeply grateful if you kindly send us an official communication so that Mr. B. K. Roy and Dr. D. Chaudhuri are able to get the requisite permission for travel.

Secondly, I would like to know whether the tickets for the travel of Mr. B. K. Roy and Dr. D. Chaudhuri will be sent by you or needs to be purchased by them at their own cost which is to be reimbursed by you after their arrival at Andaman.

I will try to come to Andaman just before the survey begins, possibly on 8/9th December 2001, if needed.

I am deeply grateful for all the help and support that I receive from you and Mr. Kutty.

Please convey my very best wishes and regards to Mr. Kutty.

With warmest regards and all best wishes for Deepawali.

Sincerely yours

(Prof. Indira Chakravarty)
