

Para No.
(1)	PUC. is the Proposal related to the Project for "Improving Health, Nutrition and Education of Great Andamanese", Submitted by the hon. Secretary Dr. H. Sudarshan, of 'KARUNA TRUST' (Affiliated to Vivekananda Girijana Kalyana Kendra) Bangalore. Main objective of the trust are :- • To provide integrated development to the tribal through health, education etc. • To empower the people towards achievement of a self-reliant Community. • Integrated development models -
(2)	• To Integrate mental health into Primary Health Care to de-mystify the process of mental health care in the Community and to establish Sustainable Transit Care Home. • To improving the quality of Teaching, resource materials and encouraging Community participation. • To encourage vocational training and use skills to develop a profitable business model. • To Create awareness, replicate innovative, models and provide benchmarks that influence Government Policy and reforms and enable other NGOs to adopt them in their respective areas.
(3)	The Karuna trust has also submitted the list of Proposed activities - (at Page 6(c) at the Point 10, of the activity sheet - It is proposed that AAJVS will manage the health Centre and Karuna Trust will work to improve the health System.
(4)	As A&N Admn. with Directorate of Tribal Welfare AAJVS have been in service to provide better health care to the Primitive Tribals.
(5)	The main or core problem is that the Great Andamanese people (especially the elder group) are in addiction of liquor.