Use of Sea-Sand continues in Strait Island

Port Blair, June 24: Rampant extraction of sea sand is continuing inside the tribal reserved, Strait Island, it is reported.

Andaman Express had reported about the matter on 22nd June but no action has been reportedly initiated by authorities, it is learnt.

Photographs arranged by Andaman Express shows how openly sands are being extracted from the sea-shores of Strait Islands, but unfortunately no one is there to check this illegal activity.
