

The buildable area in the Adi Basera complex is very less. ~~as it was~~ so, before the proposal is considered for approval, we may request the Architect of APWD to inspect the site and advise the possibility or feasibility to construct additional structures. The existing building could be altered as it has not outlived its life. (writing off the building is not warranted as present). This aspect could be decided