

118 171 2

M.E.W S.No. 1

no. 412/97 - MEIS/AM

Press Cutting from the Statesman date 28-10-97, Delhi edition.

2417
281x137

Jarawas leave habitat for food

PORT BLAIR, Oct. 27. — The Jarawas, a primitive Negrito tribe in the Andaman Islands, are increasingly coming out of their jungle habitats into the open in search of food, reports PTL.

Official sources here said that residents of the middle Andamans were taken aback when several groups of Jarawas appeared in batches last week at Uttara jetty pointing to their stomachs and indicating that they were starving.