

authorities through his representative but the Respondent authorities refused to entertain the Petitioner.

18. That in the above said manner the authorities have violated the legal right of the petitioner to carry on trade and business in the said area.
19. That the authorities have violated article 14, 15, 21 and 300 A of the Constitution of India.
20. That this petitioner is suffering very badly for the reason that the Petitioner has invested huge amount of money on the said land and the Petitioner is unable to utilize the said land due to existence of the said order dated 6.11.2007.
21. That Being aggrieved by and dissatisfied with notification dated 30.10.2007 and order dated 6.11.2007 issued and passed by the respondent authorities the petitioner has no other alternative other than to file this writ petition amongst others: -

GROUND

- a. For that the notification dated 30.10.2007 and order dated 6.11.2007 issued and passed by Respondent authorities is bad both in Law and facts.
- b. For that the Respondent No.1 has no power or authority in terms of Sub