

claims and objections before issuing the said notification.

12. That it is a fact that the Lt Governor did not take effort to conduct any enquiry in order to find out whether the area mentioned in the notification comes with in the purview of Sub section (1) of section 3 The Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Protection of Aboriginal Tribes) Regulation, 1956.

13. That basic principle of natural justice, providing opportunity of hearing before passing an order, has been violated by the Respondent authorities. The interest of the Petitioner is affected and as such it was the duty of the Respondent authorities to grant opportunity of hearing to the Petitioner before passing any order. It is pertinent to mention here in that the Petitioner's land does not come with in the area mentioned in the said notification. The Respondent No.6 was supposed to carry out a field enquiry to find out whether the land of the Petitioner comes with in the area mentioned in the said notification. The order was issued just in order to cause loss and damage to the Petitioner. The authorities are posted in order to implement the law and to enact and promulgate rules in conformity with the law. The Respondent No.1 cannot frame the law, invading into the legislative field, in the present democratic set up, in order to hurt and cause injury to a particular individual.
