

6. Appointment of unemployed youths :

The unemployed youths of the villages bordering Jarawa area have been engaged for patrolling so as to control movement of the Jarawas wherever possible. Now they are associated with the Mobile Surveillance Units which comprises police personnel, pharmacists, ward attendants and other staffs to control the movement of the Jarawas.

7. Public debate :-

It is proposed to organize a public debate on welfare and development of the Jarawa during the ^{shortly} month of April, 2001. The suggestions, which may emerge from the public debate, will be considered by the administration for future decision making.

Yours faithfully,
