The Marine department has already sold to a few selected private contractors of his choice for joint looting which needs a full - stop otherwise the entire shipping sector will be privatised by this man.

The Corrupt meeting held at Dairy Farm on 7.2.99 at 5.00 pm under the banner of Corruption Committee was well attended and the speakers spoke in length about the corruptions prevailing in the Administration.

"Police organisation should work within the framework of law and with sense of pride of service for the general public" said IGP

While addressing the media people, the new IGP, Shri Kain informed that his primary duty is to provide a clean and people oriented police administration in this territory for which he volunteered to serve in this islands. He said that after reaching here he personally studies certain problems being faced by the public. He said he got a very good efficient team of officers in the Police Administration and they all can deliver goods for providing an effective and responsive administration.

The IGP informed the media person about his earlier assignments which include his service in CBI for five years. The media people asked a lot of questions and a number of suggestions were made to improve the police system in this islands.

During the time of his predecessor he upgraded two police stations and accordingly police personnel were deployed according to his choice without any proper notification as required under the Police Manual which needs to be reviewed for proper and effective functioning in Police station. We hope that the new IGP will set right the police organisation in the correct direction within a short period.
