

nor any commercial vending of liquor allowed in the total area of these islands. For this, our tribals have been any traditional liquor for their consumption. Instead they have trading from the coconut trees which is their traditional drink. As such, the trade being laid down by the Govt. of India is fully implemented in this CT. In response to the Govt. of India's letter dt-16.9.92 at page 11/cor, a reply had been sent to the Govt. of India vide our letter dt-23.10.92 at page 12/cor. However, we may again explain the Govt. of India accordingly if approved.
