

-2-

- (a) involve any abandonment of revenue or involve any expenditure for which no provision has been made in the Appropriation Act;
- (b) involve any grant of land or assignment of revenue or concession, grant, lease or licence in respect of mineral or forest rights or rights to water power or any easement or privilege;
- (c) relate to the creation or abolition of posts, fixation of strength of a service;
- (d) have a financial bearing whether involving expenditure or not.

8. No proposal which requires previous concurrence of the Finance department, but in which the Finance department has not concurred, may be proceeded with.

9. No re-appropriation shall be made by any department other than the Finance department, except in accordance with such general delegation of powers of re-appropriation as the Finance department may have made.

10. Except to the extent that power may have been delegated to the departments under rules approved by the Finance department, every order of an administrative department conveying a sanction to be enforced in audit shall be communicated to the audit authorities.

11. Any proposal for re-appropriation of funds will be subject to the general orders and instructions of the Central Government.

12. All correspondence with the Union Public Service Commission and the Central Government regarding recruitment and conditions of service of persons serving in connection with the administration of the Union territory shall be conducted by the Chief Secretary under direction of the Administrator.

General

13. The Administrator will allocate the subjects to be handled under different departments and Secretaries to Administration and other officers of the Administration as he deems fit from time to time.

14. When the subject of a case concerns more than one department, no order shall be issued until it has been considered by all the departments concerned, unless the case is one of extreme urgency.

15. If the departments concerned are not in agreement regarding such a case, the matter will be referred to Chief Secretary or the Administrator.