persons, until and unless, a proper declaration as required under Article 341(1) of the Constitution is made by the President of India in respect of the Islands. Accordingly, the impugned notifications issued by the Respondents cannot be sustained in law for the reasons as stated above and are quashed, except, however, the Notification being Annexure 'B', since the incumbent mentioned therein, namely the Respondent No.5 has already joined his post or in other words, the said Notification has already taken effect. This order, however, will not be made applicable to the persons already sent on deputation or already transferred to the Andaman & Nicobar Islands by the President of India, but I direct that in future, the Union of India should also not make any appointment to any post in the Andaman & Nicobar Administration or send on deputation or transfer any person to these Islands to join any post here treating such post reserved for Scheduled Caste in the Andaman & Nicobar Islands till, I repeat again, a declaration is made by the President of India under Article 341(1) of
