

/ 13 /

13

the Constitution categorising any caste as Scheduled Caste relation to Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Mr. J. Shish Roy has also referred to a notice published in the daily newspaper "The Daily Telegrams" on August 6, 1993, inviting applications from eligible Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes for filling up some posts in the Naval Department at Andaman. Since no notification regarding the declaration of any caste as Scheduled Caste in relation to Andaman & Nicobar Islands as yet has been made by the President of India under Article 341(1) of the Constitution, no person can apply to such posts claiming himself to be a Scheduled Caste on the ground that the caste he belongs to has been declared as Scheduled Caste within the State he originally belongs to, and therefore, he should also be

...14/-