That, Sir, again in 1995 we represted to the Govt. of India on this. And in response the Ministry of Welfare Govt. of India, New Delhi vide their letter No. 12016/30/95/3.CD(R.Cell), dated 12.7.95 (Xerox copy of the letter enclosed for your ready reference please.) had stated that our case is being considered and further action has to be taken through an Act of Parliament in view of Article 341 and 342 of the Constitution. Since then we have been representing on this but no development is there.

I, therefore humbly request Your Good Office kindly to initiate further action in this case to recognize the value and diversity of our distinct language, identity culture and social organisation by bringing us within the purview of the Constitution of India as Scheduled Tribe at the earliest to save us from imminent decay for the sake of our life and origin.

Thanking you,

Your most obedient subjects

President
Karen Youth Organisation.
