Sub:- Annual Plan Outlay for 2001-2002 - reg.

The Annual Plan Outlays for 2001-2002 are now final and indicated as per enclosed statement conveying sector/sub sector-wise distribution with earmarking of funds for certain identified tasks. You are therefore now required to prepare the final plan programme maintaining the total size of your sectoral plan as per the allocation given now. While preparing your final plan programme the following points may be borne in mind :

1. Provision for new posts and vehicles has been completely deleted except for "operational" posts and vehicles, which have to be individually justified. Both Planning Commission and Ministry of Home Affairs have pointed out that even after the recent instructions of G.O.I. regarding austerity measures provision for a large number of posts and vehicles is being made, which has to be avoided.
2. To the extent possible, new works should be avoided and maximum possible provision be made for completion of ongoing works.
3. Prioritization of works so proposed in the plan should be done keeping in view the local needs and commitments, made to the DPC etc.
4. While preparation of schemes for earmarked outlays pertaining to PMGSY, PMGY etc., it may be ensured that the schemes are in
