The PAT Regulation is not a law aimed at removing social evils, it is all the same necessary to describe minimum punishment both imprisonment and fine under the PAT Regulation so as to have deterrent effect on the offenders. Therefore, the Hon'ble. has to take a decision whether the existing provision for punishment may be ^{kept in} abeyance or may be amended prescribing minimum punishment i.e. imprisonment which may extend to one year and fine of Rs. 2000/-
