

46.

The amendment now proposed appears to be different from the one accepted by the Expert Group. The reasons for dropping the amendment i.e. minimum fine of Rs. 2000/-, accepted by the Expert Group does not appear to have been indicated anywhere.

Submitted please.

Research Officer (TW)
(CF No.: T4-181)

Director (TW)

No.1-467/2001-TW/

Refer to the note at para 126/N above. The reason for enhancement ^{of} fine has been indicated in para 105/N above. Please verify. Further please check as to whether draft letter to the Ministry of Home Affairs was put up in line with the approval accorded by the Lt.Governor.

Also indicate as to what makes the suggestion of the Expert Group under Ministry of Home Affairs with regard to fine of Rs.2000/- in the proposed ~~management~~ ^{amendment} of the regulation unacceptable?

(S.A.Awaradi)
Director (TW)
8.10.2002
(C.F. No. : T5- 56)

Research Officer (TW)

(126)

For draft

Sternu

(127)

(128)