This is regarding amendment to Rule 11 relating to fee prescribed for issue of tribal pass, of the A&N Islands (Protection of Aboriginal Tribes), Rules, 1957. The Revenue Section of the Secretariat is the only Administrative Branch, which deals with the matters connected with the respective Deputy Commissioner including matters pertaining to implementation of various laws. ~~So far as~~ The PAT Regulation, the Rules framed thereunder are implemented by the respective D.C. Therefore, we may refer the file to A.S (Rev.) to find out if any amendment to Rule 11 relating to fees for tribal pass has been issued or not, if approved.

With reference to Para 252/N ~~over~~ it is submitted. ~~The~~^{no} proposal for amendment of Rule 11 of PAT Regulation relating to fees for tribal pass has been examined by the Revenue Section earlier. Hence the question of amendment of Rule 11 for increasing the fees does not arise ~~in~~ so far as the Revenue Branch is concerned. The D.C(A) who was consulted over the phone has intimated that no amendment has been made so far. The file therefore returned to Research Officer (TW) for taking further action.
