

20 days. But the same are yet to be received from them. The BDOs and the Panchayat should ensure its submission with out any further delay and intimate the present position for the information of the house.

TRYSEM

- i) Deputing eligible Rural youths to various technical institution in Mainland.
- It was decided in the meeting that training in special trades under TRYSEM can be provided by deputing eligible Rural Youths to various technical institutions in Mainland provided to additional amount required in excess of provision available under the scheme is met by UT Administration . This point was discussed in the monthly review meeting held on 13/11/96 also and the BDOs were advised to find out such new trades keeping in mind with the availability of raw materials marketing facilities talents aptitudes of youths etc. and to furnish a report thereon, with in a fortnight in order to take up the matter with the Administration. The same are still awaited from them. The BDOs should ensure its submission immediately to enable DRDS to take further action and intimate the position for the information of the house.

J.R.Y:

- i) Furnishing of Reports regarding utilisation of funds in time
- The fund towards 1st instalment of the year 96-97 was received in DRDS during Oct.'96 and the same has already been distributed to various PRIs and Blocks as per the norms laid down in the manual immediately