

2. It was felt by the members that 10 days should be sufficient.
3. The Festival will be held simultaneously at Kottamattom, and Ambadikar Auditorium at Fort St. George and also at other islands of place Rungat, Mayabunder, Diglipur, Little Andaman and Car Nicobar. It was decided to hold a ten-day long Island Tourism Festival starting from 15th December, extendable by three days.

Action

4. It was further decided that this year too, there will be APWD will ensure that the ground is levelled properly and stalls made. location of all the stalls specially at the back side could be marketable. For levelling, the work has to start quite early so that earth gets construction of stalls.

Action by

5. In order to make Island Tourism Festival more present cum- Secretary, I & T desired that well known organisations like Pondicherry Agro service, National Ship Design & Research Centre, be invited to participate. He also suggested that Banks & National Sp asked to participate this time.

6. This time Coast Guard and Navy should also be asked both for general display as well as in the food stall area.

Action by Director (IP&T)
Director of Education

7. It was suggested that a book fair may be organised. Do organise the same.

Action by

8. The rate of General stalls, where display of items takes stall, the cost per stall will remain at Rs. 5000/- whereas rates for food 3000/- to encourage more participation. Proper advertisement will Telegrams and other news media for sale of stalls, as done on earlier occ.

9. The advertisement cost on the front walls of the ex increased by 10 %.

Action

10. This year the theme of the exhibition will be " Eco- sustainable development". However, in order to have a catchy slogan