ITF - 1996 was a very well organised festival. However, keeping in view the interest of public in the affairs of the primitive tribes, the single staff space was less for AAJVS. This time the allotment of space to AAJVS may be increased.

Moreover, to increase the attractiveness of the festival more of cultural programmes like a Drama Competition by Zonal Cultural Centres may be organised. And also wider publicity of the event through media at both national and international level should be made. Both the objective of attracting more of tourists as well as informing public at large about the socio-cultural profile of Bay Islands.
