

The committee was informed that every year the drop out rate ranges between 20% to 30%. The committee, therefore, felt some candidates be also kept in the panel and they will be considered in the resultant vacancies in cases of drop out.

The committee was informed that as against 10 tribals candidates, 9 names were received, which also included one name each of Andamanese and Onges. The Committee, therefore, recommended the undermentioned 9 tribals for the Bharat Darshan Tour:-

Nicobarese:

1. Shri. Paul Sam<sup>S</sup>on.
2. Shri. Thomas Rowson.
3. Shri. Patrick Saul.
4. Shri. Borin Kumar.
5. Shri. Ragan.
6. Shri. Alfred.
7. Smti. Angel.

Andamanese:

1. Shri. Joe.

Onge:

1. Shri. Tambolae

For the tenth seat, the Committee observed that Smt. Evelyn Paul from Car Nicobar, whose name has been sponsored under the women social worker category, is a Nicobaree Tribal. The committee recommended that this seat can be offered to Smt. Evelyn Paul.

As regards selection for the women social workers, the Committee after due deliberations recommended as under:-

(1) South Andaman Block:

Three names were sponsored for 2 seats. The Committee recommended a panel of three names. The third social worker would be considered in case of any drop out:-

1. Smt. Paolmani Kujur.
2. Smt. Bishnu Priya Sanjal
3. Smt. Georgina