This has a reference to your letter No. 6-3/99-TC dated 17th April, 2000 regarding Parliament Question. In this connection, I am directed to inform you that the following information may be furnished against the Serial No. (E) of the questions. The Anthropological survey prepares field based authoritative reports on various dimensions of the Scheduled Tribes from anthropological perspectives. There are several tribal research institutes of State Govts. and University departments of Anthropology, beside the office of the Registrar General (Census of India), Govt. of India, who also prepare reports on the tribes of India.

Yours faithfully,

( J K Sarkar )
Deputy Director (Cultural) &
Officer-in-Charge, PMI (PC)
