raised by shri P.D.Elangovan to be replied on 18/4/2000 regarding self employment schemes for Tribals.

Sir,

With reference to the Administrations letter No.1-360/95-TW (PF) 369 dated 14.4.2000 on the subject mentioned above, I am directed to state that the information in respect of para (a) (d) (e) and (f) may be treated as nil because the above paras are not related to this department.
The information in respect of para (b) and (c) are as under :-

The new schemes to provide self employment opportunities for the tribals of this U.T is proposed in the plan programmes as all schemes under T.S.P are continuing programmes. For the upliftment of the socio-economic status of the tribal the following programmes are implemented by this department under TSP and SCA

1. Imparting training in poultry keeping to the tribals to setup their own farms.
2. Imparting piggery and goating training to the tribals.
3. Supply of backyard poultry, duckery reared poultry unit, goatunit, piggery unit etc to the tribals on 50% subsidy basis.
4. Providing day old improves chicks on normal rate to set up poultry farms.

Yours faithfully
