

reserve in the Home Ministry may perhaps need a re-thinking. However, if the Government of India still feel that the power should be vested in the Home Ministry, we have no objection to it and the Regulation may be amended accordingly.

5. I shall be grateful if the permission of the Home Ministry to construct Andaman Trunk Road beyond 87 Kms which is held up for the last several years and results in surrender of huge plan funds, year after year, is kindly accorded immediately.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(R. Padmanabhan)
