

youths, particularly in the interior areas so attract them towards income generating activities suitable to their area. The directorate may organise product specific training programmes and arrange to supply necessary inputs from TSP funds from various tribal areas.

7. Directorate of Information & Publicity

- a. In order to create better awareness and basic knowledge about various social aspects of the mainstream among the tribal people the directorate may organise more and more educational programmes in the areas through audio-visual media.

B. Directorate of Shipping Services

- a. The directorate has spent a substantial amount on purchase of vessels in the mainland-island utilising funds under TSP which have very remote effect on the welfare of the tribal community. It is suggested that the fund under TSP should be utilised for purchasing vessels in the inter-island sector so that the benefit of the same may directly reach the people.
