

This is regarding Annual Report on the working of the SCs & STs (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 for the calendar year ended 03/12/2003. The Govt. of India, Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment vide their letter dated 06/09/2004 at page 139/C has pointed out that the number of cases pending with Police and Court at the end of year 2002 were shown as Nil and one cases respectively whereas the number of cases brought forward during the year 2003 with Police and Court were shown as Nil and Nil cases respectively which do not tally. They have further stated that the number of cases pending with Police and Court at the end of a particular year and the number of cases brought forward with Police and Court at the beginning of the next year should be same. They have requested this Administration to furnish the revised statistical details of cases registered by Police and Court and their disposal under the Act for the calendar year 2003 immediately.

In this connection it may be mentioned that earlier we had sent the report on the basis of Dy. As per Police report, a case was registered at Police Station, Aberdeen vide case crime No. 822/02 dated 17/08/2003 U/s 451/354 IPC r.w.s. 3(i)(xi) of prevention of atrocities on SC&ST Act 1989 against Shri M. Raju S/o Muniyandi. Now the Dy. S.P (CID) has clarified that the above mentioned case was registered vide case crime No. 822/02 dated 17/08/2002 instead of 17/08/2003 and necessary correction to this effect has been carried out in the report which could be seen at page 104/C. Besides, a fresh statement showing disposal of cases by the Court including Special Courts under the POA Act received from the IGP is placed at page 144/C.
