

§J
17
The amended clause (X) of section 3 may be read as follows:

"Intentionally insults or intimidates a member of Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribe in any place within public view"

Amend Clause (XI) of Section 3 as follows: -

Delete the expression

"With intent to dishonour or outrage her modesty" As assaults or uses force to any woman or man itself in an offence under Section 323 and 352 I.P.C.

The expression "with the intent to dishonour or outrage her modesty" is superfluous and unnecessary;

The amended clause (XI) of Section 3 should be read as follows:

"Assaults or uses force to any woman belonging to Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe".

Amend Clause (iii) of Sub Section (2) of Section 3 as follows:

Delete the expressions "intending to cause or knowing it to be likely that he will thereby cause damage" as this expression is superfluous and unnecessary since "whoever commits mischief by fire or any explosive substance, he intends to cause damage to any property or he knows it to be likely that he will thereby cause damage to any property."

The Amended clause should be read as follows:

"Whoever commits mischief by fire or any explosive substance to any property belonging to a member of a Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribe, shall be punishable with--".

Amend Clause (iv) of sub Section (2) of Section 3 as follows:

Delete the expressions,

"intending to cause or knowing it to be likely is superfluous and unnecessary as whoever commits mischief by fire or any explosive substance, he will thereby likely to cause destruction of any building----"