

North-East, J&K and A&N and Lakshadweep Islands. At present 10% quota is earmarked under RDG for these sectors. Most of the airlines prefer to meet this criterion by touching Jammu and other short duration destinations and avoid Port Blair. On 29.06.2011, M/o Civil Aviation was requested to keep A&N Islands in an exclusive category under Route Dispersal airlines to fly 10% of capacity on non-viable route North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Islands and Lakhshadweep is being scrapped Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the airlines will to routes considered non-viable would be given under the Essential Air Service Fund, Jointly	SI Issues	Action Taken/Status as on 22.	Extract of Minute	Action Taken/Status as on 22.03.2014
11. Reduction of air fare and increased connectivity. According to LG (A&N), Route Dispersal Guidelines (RDG) were expected to improve connectivity in the remote regions such as North-East, J&K and A&N and Lakshadweep Islands. At present 10% quota is earmarked under RDG for these sectors. Most of the airlines prefer to meet this criterion by touching Jammu and Uther short duration destinations and avoid Port Blair. On 29.06.2011, M/o Civil Aviation was requested to keep A&N Islands in an exclusive category under Route Dispersal Guidelines which airlines to fly 10% of capacity on non-viable route North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Lakhshadweep is being scrapped Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the airlines will to routes considered non-viable would be given under the Essential Air Service Fund, Jointhy		acquire ued and	identified and AAI has asked the A&N Administration to acquire this land. Notification under Section 5 has also been issued and instrument landing system will be in place on completion of the expected to improve connectivity in the remote regions such as North-East, J&K and A&N and Lakshadweep Islands. At present 10% quota is earmarked under RDG for these sectors. Most of the airlines prefer to meet this criterion by touching Jammu and other short duration destinations and avoid Port Blair. On 29.06.2011, M/o Civil Aviation was requested to keep A&N Islands in an exclusive category under Route Dispersal Guidelines which airlines to fly 10% of capacity on non-viable route North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Islands and Lakhshadweep is being scrapped Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the airlines will to routes considered non-viable would be given under the Essential Air Service Fund, Jointly			Action to be taken by Ministry of Civil Aviation
expected to improve connectivity in the remote regions such as North-East, J&K and A&N and Lakshadweep Islands. At present 10% quota is earmarked under RDG for these sectors. Most of the airlines prefer to meet this criterion by touching Jammu and other short duration destinations and avoid Port Blair. On 29.06.2011, M/o Civil Aviation was requested to keep A&N Islands in an exclusive category under Route Dispersal Guidelines which airlines to fly 10% of capacity on non-viable route North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Islands and Lakhshadweep is being scrapped Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the airlines will to routes considered non-viable would be given under the Essential Air Service Fund, Jointly (A&N) to the Union Minister of Civil Aviation. This will increase connectivity as well as reduce air fares. travelling on metro routes, by the State Government and concessions on A		The existing Route Dispersal Guideline airlines to fly 10% of capacity on non-via North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Anda Islands and Lakhshadweep is being Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the ai to routes considered non-viable would under the Essential Air Service Fund Government of India, by imposing ce travelling on metro routes, by the Sunderwriting some seats and concession Control (ATC) charges by Airport Authoritical Control (ATC) charges are control Control (ATC) charges by Airport Authoritical Control (ATC) charges by Airport Authoritical Control (ATC) charges are control Control (ATC) charges by Airport Authoritical Control (ATC) charges by Airport	expected to improve connectivity in the remote regions such as North-East, J&K and A&N and Lakshadweep Islands. At present 10% quota is earmarked under RDG for these sectors. Most of the airlines prefer to meet this criterion by touching Jammu and other short duration destinations and avoid Port Blair. On 29.06.2011, M/o Civil Aviation was requested to keep A&N Islands in an exclusive category under Route Dispersal Guidelines, followed up by a letter dated 25-08-2011 from LG (A&N) to the Union Minister of Civil Aviation. This will increase connectivity as well as reduce air fares.	North-East, Jammu and Kashmir, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Lakhshadweep is being scrapped by the Ministry of Civil Aviation. Instead, the airlines willing to fly to routes considered non-viable would be given subsidy under the Essential Air Service Fund, Jointly by the