

Provided that where any person interested being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application within fourteen days from the date of determination of the amount of such compensation or where the amount of such compensation has been determined in the absence of the person interested or, as the case may be, the owner, fourteen days, from the date on which the intimation of such determination is sent to that person or owner, to the Administrator for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the Administrator may determine:

Provided further that where there is any dispute as to the title to receive the compensation or as to the apportionment of the amount of compensation, it shall be referred by the Administrator to an arbitrator appointed in this behalf by him for determination, and shall be determined in accordance with the decision of such arbitrator.

Explanation : In this sub-rule, the expression 'person interested' means the person who was in actual possession of the premises requisitioned under rule 160 immediately before the requisition, or where no person was in such actual possession the owner of such premises.

(2) Whenever in pursuance of rule 160, the Administrator requisitions any vehicle, vessel or animal there shall be paid to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the Administrator on the basis of the fares or rates prevailing in the locality for the hire of such vehicle, vessel or animal :

Provided that where there is a dispute regarding the amount of compensation or apportionment of the amount of compensation, the procedure laid down in sub-rule (1) shall be followed.

162. Power to obtain information: The Administrator may with a view to requisition any property under rule 160 or determining the compensation payable under rule 161, by an order, require any person to furnish to such authority as may be specified by him in the order, such information in possession relating to such property as may be so specified.

163. Powers to entry into and inspection of premises etc.: (1) Any person authorized in this behalf by the Administrator may enter into any premises and inspect such premises and any vehicle, vessel or animal for the purpose of determining whether, and if so in what manner, an order under rule 160 should be made in relation to such premises, vehicle, vessel or animal or with a view to securing compliance with any order made under that rule.

(2) In this rule the expression 'premises' and 'vehicle' have the same meanings as in rule 160.

164. Eviction from requisitioned premises : (1) Any person remaining in possession of any requisitioned premises in contravention of any order made under rule 160 may be summarily evicted from the premises by any officer empowered by the Administrator in this behalf.

(2) Any officer so empowered may, after giving to any woman not appearing public reasonable warning and facility to withdraw, remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door of any building or do any other act necessary for effecting such eviction.

165. Release of premises from requisition : (1) When any premises requisitioned under rule 160 are to be released from requisition, the possession thereof shall be delivered to the person from whom possession was taken at the time when the premises were requisitioned, or if there were no such person, to the person deemed by the Administrator to be the owner of such premises, and such delivery of possession shall be a full discharge of the Administrator from all liabilities in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the premises which any other person may, be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the premises is so delivered.
