Laying of rules
before Parliament.

111. Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session for a total period of 30 days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Regulation not to have overriding effect.

112. Wherever any of the provisions of this Regulation come in conflict with the provisions of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Protection of Aboriginal Tribes) Regulation, 1956, the latter shall prevail.

3 of 1956.
